

The law doesn't force Walmart or any other business to rent space to their competitors at discount rates. Why force the phone company to do so? Let the CLECs construct their own facilities if they want to compete.